Region N-1's Newsletter

December Mini Issue No. 51/2

Representing Arizona, New Mexico, So. Nevada, El Paso, Texas, and So. California

From the Regional Coordinator

I'd hoped we could pull together one last newsletter this year. That would make four, so we'd be meeting the goal of having a quarterly newsletter. But it was just too much to handle this time of year. We will be releasing our next newsletter early in the year in 2010 (can you believe it'll be 2010???)

But there is SO MUCH happening in the region in the first quarter of next year that I wanted to take some time to get the word out about several events coming up so people could make plans, register for classes, make hotel arrangements, etc. So we're giving you this "mini" newsletter! Put all these dates on your calendar! Show up for as many events as you can! All four of these shows have supported NAME in the past through providing a table where we can meet and recruit potential members and where we can sell magazines or kits to fund our regional activities. We have to support our shows and our instructors and our dealers in the miniature business. That's the only way we'll continue to have these wonderful mini events.

February 6-7 brings minis to San Diego, CA. Last year this show was packed to the gills. The weather was rainy and they had a full page article put into the local paper. The exhibits were wonderful, including their "under construction" exhibits and a full suite or pirate's hide-a-ways. The children's classes were filled, all day long. And, of course, there were wonderful minis for sale! For more information, see : San Diego--<http://www.sdminiatures.com/shows.htm>

February 20-21 brings minis to Morro Bay. I mean, really, could you ask for a more beautiful place for miniature shopping?! In fact, it's the scenery that brings at least one of the regular dealers; Barbara Stanton uses the views in Morro Bay in many of her scenic paintings.

The Central Coast of California is celebrating it's 20th anniversary of " The Dollhouse Miniatures Show & Sale". The event takes place February 20 & 21, 2010 in Morro Bay at the Community Center. For more information : Mike & Cherrel Botkin @ 805-772-7858 or Imcinis@att.net, Linda Shearer @ 805-772-7202 or SimplyHeartI@att.net.
